

ATTENTION

Important Public Safety Announcement

Recently, unknown individuals have been climbing on Kirk Centre's building and roof. This is especially concerning since we understand these individuals are minors. Our building is old, and the walls and roof are not safe to climb on. We ask that parents and caregivers please speak with their children about how dangerous this activity can be. We have installed video surveillance and will be installing other safety measures as soon as possible.