We're thrilled to share some exciting news from Kirk Centre!
Please join us in congratulating our very own Sally-Anne Woolnough, Executive Director of Kirk Centre, on receiving the Emergent Leader in Community Space award at this year's SPRE Summit!

This award recognizes rising leaders who are reimagining how space can serve community—and we can't think of anyone more deserving. Sally-Anne has been a driving force behind Kirk Centre's transformation into a vibrant, inclusive hub.

This recognition is deeply meaningful—not just for us, but for the incredible community we've been building at Kirk Centre and beyond. Turning underused spaces into vibrant, inclusive community hubs is a collective effort, and we're grateful to work alongside so many passionate changemakers.

We're so proud to have her leadership, vision, and heart guiding our work. Congratulations, Sally-Anne!

Let's keep transforming spaces together.
